on the Theme “ANTI RAGGING” were held on 25.10.2016

To create awareness on the menace of Ragging, a daylong event was organized in the FDS Auditorium with the 1st year BDS students as the target audience. As part of the event, various skits on anti-ragging were organized by the Cultural Committee of FDS in conjunction with the anti-ragging cell of the institute.

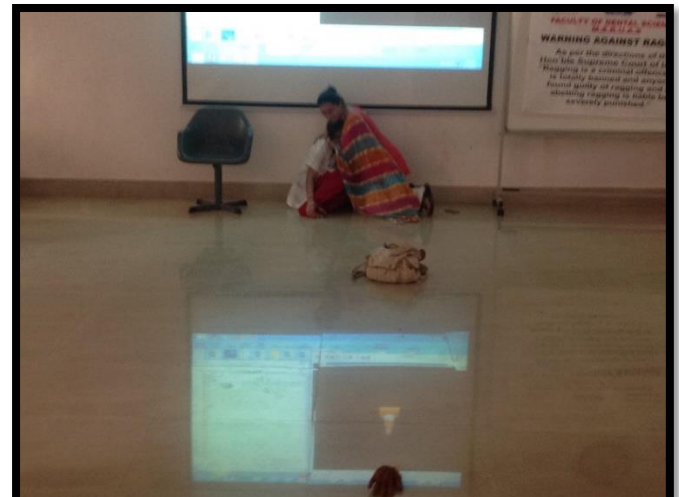

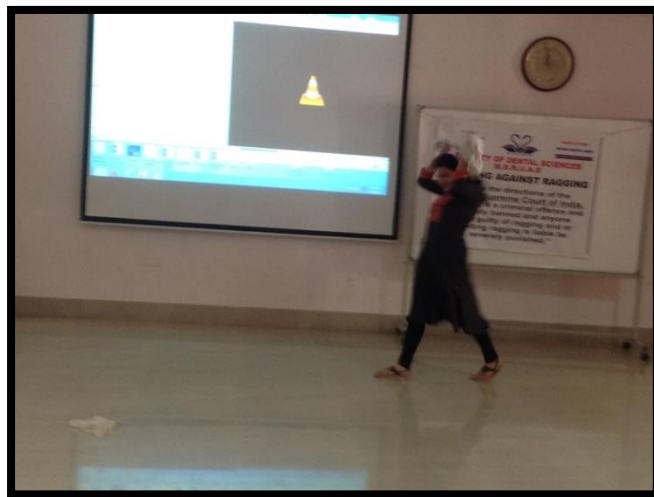

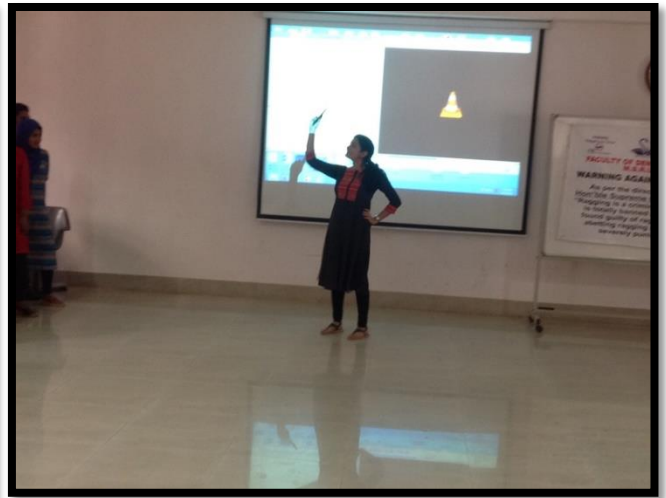

The skits portrayed the ill effects of ragging and the consequence of it. The message that the students and the institute at large are firmly against any sort of ragging was clearly portrayed through the skits and the interactive sessions held. The first year students were also encouraged to introduce themselves and formally welcomed by their seniors. The talented lot displayed their extracurricular skills as well. The skits were followed by a classical dance performance by Miss Sowmya of third year BDS who enthralled the crowd with her graceful dance. The cultural extravaganza was followed by Collage competition and Face Painting which saw overwhelming response from the students. The judges had a tough time deliberating for results.

The program concluded by felicitation of the winners and concluding remarks from the Associate Dean (UG).
